

Fish are biting!

Check out the latest boat deals

Spring is in the air, the fish are biting and income tax checks are arriving in the mailbox every day, which means it is time to check out the latest models and best deals on a new boat.

If you want to save big on a new boat, motor or marine electronics, make plans now to swing by the Tallahassee Regional Boat Show next weekend (March 1-3) at the North Florida Fairgrounds (411 Paul Russell Road in Tallahassee).

Admission and parking is free.

The show will run from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Area boat and marine supply dealers – including Big Bend Marine, Mike Marine Supply, Jack's Boats & Trailers, Wefings Marine, Shield's Marina and H2O Sports – will showcase a huge selection of boats, motors, marine electronics and accessories.

Stop by to see all of the latest 2019 models and visit the businesses featured on this page who will be offering special pricing, on-site financing and boat show discounts.

For more information, see ads below or call (850) 984-5637.

Capt. Pat McGriff will teach professional tips and tricks to help you catch more fish during his free fishing seminars on March 2.

Free fishing seminars set for March 2

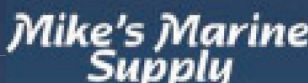

Local charter fishing guide Capt. Pat McGriff will be providing free trout and redfish seminars during the Tallahassee Regional Boat Show held at the North Florida Fairgrounds in Tallahassee on March 2.

To learn professional tips and tricks to help you catch more fish, stop by the Coastal Angler tent on Saturday, March 2 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.
