

Senior Center spruced up in honor of 'Day of Caring'

The Taylor Senior Center received a facelift during Taylor County United Way's first ever "Day of Caring," held Friday, Feb. 23. The Taylor County Sheriff's Office - Division of Emergency Management and Taylor County CERT volunteers were among those who rolled up their sleeves and got to work sprucing up the outside of the center. From 8 a.m. until 12 noon, United Way members and volunteers helped Taylor Senior Citizens Center staff clean the outside of the building and clean out and replant flower beds. "Our senior citizens deserve this," Emergency Management Deputy Director Kristy Anderson said.

Volunteers cleaned out and replanted flower beds at the Taylor Senior Citizens Center during Taylor County United Way's 'Day of Caring.'

Taylor County Sheriff's Office - Division of Emergency Management and Taylor County CERT volunteers were among 'Day of Caring' participants.

Volunteers also cleaned the exterior of the senior center. Emergency Management Deputy Director Kristy Anderson is shown above.
