

Big Bend Brewfest tomorrow

Head down to Rosehead Park tomorrow and join fellow community members in celebrating Taylor County's 2nd annual Big Bend Brewfest.

Originally scheduled for Saturday, March 2, the festival was rescheduled for Saturday, March 16 -- just in time for St. Patrick's Day.

The event will be held at the same time as originally scheduled, from 5-8 p.m. at Rosehead Park. VIP ticketholders will be admitted at 4 p.m.

The postponement came after Tri-Eagle Sales and a few other visiting brewers told local Big Bend Brewfest organizers that they would not be able to travel to Perry due to inclement weather, according to Chamber Director Dawn Taylor.

"We as organizers apologize for the inconvenience, but the decision was beyond our control," Taylor said. "Brewers said that traveling several hours could be risky."

All pre-purchased tickets will be honored at the rescheduled event.

The Big Bend Brewfest is a Rotary Club of Perry event that offers unlimited tastings of different beers to raise funds to donate to the Perry Police Department's "Shop With a Cop" Program and to the Rotary Club Foundation, Rotary scholarships and other Rotary civic projects throughout the county and the world.

In addition to unlimited beer tastings, the event will also feature giveaways, live music and a deejay, along with food vendors.

"We have several different food vendors, crafters with t-shirts, jewelry, BBQ, boiled peanuts, kettle corn and we're looking at a mac and cheese food truck that couldn't come to the last one," Taylor said.

Standard admission tickets are $25 and include entry to the festival and unlimited beer tastings.

No person under 21 years old is allowed at the festival, including Designated Driver ticket holders. All persons must show valid ID at event entrance.

The 2nd Annual Big Bend Brewfest, originally scheduled for Saturday, March 2, will be held tomorrow (Saturday) from 5-8 p.m.

Take a break from your Sunday afternoon routine and learn something new this weekend! It's Meow or Never for Ferals and Forest Capital Humane Society will host a bottle-feeding workshop Sunday, March 17, from 1-4 p.m. at the Taylor County Horseman's Arena on Bishop Blvd. in Perry.

Learn to bottle-feed kittens this Sunday

As the weather begins to warm, the dreaded "kitten season" draws closer.

Taylor County will be once again overrun with a huge influx of new stray kittens and puppies born during the warm summer months.

As part of their "never-ending endeavor to save all the kitties," It's Meow or Never for Ferals and Forest Capital Humane Society will host a bottle feeding workshop this Sunday, March 17, from 1-4 p.m.

The workshop will be held at the Taylor County Horseman's Arena on Bishop Blvd. in Perry.

The workshop is open to the public, but seating is limited.

So, if you plan to attend, contact Gail Hartman at (850) 838-9293 or Jo Ann Parker at (850) 843-2442 to reserve your seat.

And, as always, remember to spay and neuter your pets as "kitten season" approaches.

"We always dread 'kitten season' because we know, no matter how hard we try, we won't be able to save them all...we won't even come close!" Hearts for Hometown Dogs staff said. "There are way too many in our community."

Adopt a new friend

Looking for companionship? There's a cat out there looking for you!

"It's Meow or Never for Ferals" has a wide variety of new kittens and cats that will be up for adoption this Saturday, March 16 at Tractor Supply.

Cats will be available to meet and greet from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Adopt a sweet kitten or cat and reap the many benefits of having a loving, cuddly companion around. Bring a new friend into your home this spring.

Bring imagination to life with 'Touch-A-Truck'

Help bring your child's imagination to life with Taylor County "Touch-A-Truck."

The free, family-friendly event will be held Saturday, March 23, from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. at Rosehead Park.

Children will get a chance to climb into fire engines, police cars, tractors and more.

Other activities include live demonstrations and free tobacco cessation information and tools.
