

TCMS Lady Bulldogs will travel to Suwannee, Aucilla next week

TCMS then faced Wakulla Riversprings, who defeated the Lady Bulldogs in two straight sets by scores of 25-11 and 25-12. Taylor County bounced back quickly and managed to defeat Madison Christian Academy in two sets 25-23 and 25-10. Ella Goodman led the team with seven aces and two kills, while Jaskya' Upshaw recorded four aces to go along with three kills. Emma Kirkland had one ace that was complimented by seven kills and four assists, while Alana Hall led the Lady Bulldogs in assists with eight.

Taylor County put a winning streak together by defeating Aucilla in three sets, as the Lady Bulldogs rebounded after dropping the first set 26-24 before coming back and winning the final two sets in a row 25-7 and 15-3.

Mallory Folsom led the team in aces, as she recorded 10, while Ella Goodman managed to serve four aces.

Kirkland had three aces, one kill and led the Lady

Bulldogs in assists with nine.

Hannah Shiver had three aces to go along with four kills, and Upshaw had two aces as well as four kills.

Hall served up one ace and managed to pick up seven assists in the victory over Aucilla Christian Academy.

TCMS was slated to face

Madison County in Madison yesterday (Thursday), but results were not available as of press time.

The Lady Bulldogs will travel to Suwannee County and Aucilla next week before returning home for their next home match on Sept. 17 when they host Wakulla County.

'Dogs favored to win by 6 points was led by Montell Bouie, who had 11 carries for 139 yards and two touchdowns.

North Bay Haven only put the ball in the air five times, completing one pass for -2 yards. Rutherford did allow NBA to pick up 284 yards on the ground, as well as three touchdowns.

The Rams then found themselves outmanned when they faced Vernon -- the #5 Class 1A school in the state -- who rolled over Rutherford, 42-18.

Vernon held Rutherford to 191 yards on 48 carries, as Bouie only picked up 26 yards in 12 attempts.

Six different players carried the ball three or more times for the Rams, as they tried everything they could to get some offensive production against Vernon.

Taylor County will host

Vernon on Oct. 11, which will also serve as the Bulldogs' Homecoming game.

TCHS will have to improve its run defense -- which has been shredded in the first two games -- in order to contain the Rams' rushing attack and pick up their first victory of the season tonight.

Joe Pinkos has the Bulldogs favored to win by six points over Rutherford.

Varsity girls to face Hilliard on Tues.

Jordan Pyke led the team with 15 points, eight aces, eight kills and a block in what was her best performance so far this season.

Ceven Kidd chipped in 12 points, six aces and nine kills to go along with three blocks.

Ann Marie McAfee continued to record piles of assists, as she had a whopping 32 in the victory over Aucilla.

Trista Knowles had 10 points to go along with two aces, eight kills and one block.

The Lady Bulldogs were slated to host Hamilton County last night (Thursday), but results were not available as of press time.

Next Tuesday, Taylor County will travel to Nassau County to face Hilliard, as they will be looking to extend their winning streak.

Bulldogs with a 44, followed by Jayce Calhoun with a 49.

Tyler Knight shot a 51, and Treyton Kirk shot a 52 at Madison County Country Club.

Taylor County then played a match against Branford and Mayo at Quail Heights this past Tuesday, firing a combined 195 to pick up wins over Lafayette County

(200) and Branford (272).

Jayce Calhoun led the Bulldogs with a 46, followed close behind by Kadyn Puhl with a 47.

Tyler Knight shot a 49, and Treyton Kirk fired a 53 to give the Bulldogs a team score of 195.

Taylor was slated to host Branford yesterday (Thursday), but results were not available as of press time.

The Bulldogs' next match will be this upcoming Monday, as they will look to take down Madison County at the Perry Golf & Country Club (PGCC).

"We have yet to play as well as we can, which is a positive thing. We just have to continue improving in all phases of the game, as we just want to get better each match. Hopefully, we will be peaking at the end of the year," TCHS Golf Coach Reggie Wentworth said.
