He says owning his own restaurant will finally allow him to combine both his business skills and cooking talents.

In addition to being a restaurant owner, Diane is a full-time registered nurse. She said she feels that nursing and the restaurant business have a lot in common -- both patients and customers need to be taken care of well.

With the Steinhatchee area being rather remote, Diane hopes to offer free CPR training at the Steinhatchee Community Center.

She explains, "This way at least local residents will know how to do chest compressions until medical help arrives."

Kristin Hawkins of FBC Mortgage, LLC in Gainesville has often hired Richard McDavid for catering her corporate tailgate events at University of Florida home football games.

According to Hawkins, "My husband's favorite dish is Richard's crawfish etouffee."

Her husband swears that Richard's version rivals that of his all-time favorite from Chef Paul Prudhomme's K-Paul's restaurant in New Orleans.

McDavid's Cafe is open seven days a week, from 6 a.m. until 2 p.m. (breakfast ends at 11 a.m.).

Debra Ann Butler graduated from Eckerd College, where she majored in Humanities, minored in Journalism and was a member of Phi Alpha Theta. Recently nominated for the Writing Excellence Award at Eckerd College, she is now a first-year graduate student at Johns Hopkins University in pursuit of a MA in Writing. Butler and her husband live in Steinhatchee, where she enjoys cooking, raising orchids and fishing.

Monty Python's SPAMALOT
A new musical... ripped off from the motion picture MONTY PYTHON and the Holy Grail

Starring Taylor County's Chelsea Ealum

Taylor County native Chelsea Ealum will be on stage this weekend and next in Quincy Music Theatre's production of "Monty Python's Spamalot."

Ealum will be portraying the Lady of the Lake in the show, which opens tonight (Friday) and runs through Feb. 23.

"Lovingly ripped off" from the classic film comedy "Monty Python and the Holy Grail," the musical retells the legend of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table and features a bevy of beautiful show girls, not to mention cows, killer rabbits and French people.

The 2005 Broadway production won three Tony Awards, including Best Musical, and was followed by two successful West End runs.

"The outrageous, uproarious and gloriously entertaining story of King Arthur and the Lady of the Lake will delight audiences as they search for the Holy Grail and always look on the bright side of life," organizers said.

Showtimes will be Feb. 14-15 and 21-22 at 7:30 p.m. and Feb. 16 and 22-23 at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are $20 for adults, $17 for seniors and $15 for students and military personnel.
