Prayer service set Thursday, May 5, at Shady Grove Park

SHADY GROVE NEWS Continued from page 7

Day of Prayer – Thursday, May 5 – local churches will hold a prayer service at Shady Grove Community Park at noon.

President Harry S. Truman proclaimed a National Day of Prayer to be observed on July 4, 1952.

Each year since that date, Americans have observed the day in their own way. The observance was moved to the first Thursday in May by President Ronald Reagan and has been proclaimed each year since.

The theme for this year's National Day of Prayer is "Exalt The Lord, Who Has Established Us." (Colossians 2: 6-7)

I'm sure you will agree that there has never been a more critical time to pray. I hope you can join a group in prayer. If you can't find one, join us in Shady Grove and let's exalt our Heavenly Father and pray for mercy and hope during these difficult days.

And now the weather...
Warm weather is here and frosts/freezes are in our past. I can tell with certainty because the pecan tree that my Daddy planted many years ago in my front yard is covered with fresh green leaves.

Summer is not here yet, I believe it will come around June 20.

The squirrels get most of the nuts, but the old tree stands and reminds me of my Dad as it signals the season change.

I hope you are enjoying these days. Lord willing, I'll see you back here in a couple of weeks.

Praise & Worship
