

An estimated 200 fans watched 35 former Bulldog baseball players battle to a 12-12 tie after 7 innings in the first annual TCHS Alumni Baseball Game on Saturday, Feb. 1 at Pace Field. "It was a great day for Taylor County baseball," former longtime TCHS baseball coach and Superintendent of Schools Reggie Wentworth said. "I got to see a bunch of my former players, and how much the support for the program is growing," Wentworth said. "I am excited about the direction of our baseball program. We have a good, young coaching staff that is excited and working hard in preparation for the upcoming season. It should be exciting." The TCHS Baseball Booster Club raised over $4,600 for the program and plans to make the alumni game an annual fundraising event every year before the first game of the season.
