

Healthcare & Wellness

Health expo will feature 50+ vendors this Friday at DMH

Doctors' Memorial Hospital (DMH), in partnership with Tallahassee Memorial HealthCare (TMH), will host a Health & Wellness Expo on Friday, Sept. 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The event will be held in the beautiful oak-shaded area along the facility's new fitness path, with more than 50 vendors showcasing health and wellness resources.

This event provides a unique opportunity for residents of Taylor County and the surrounding areas to access a wide range of health and wellness services all in one place.

Vendors from local and regional organizations will be on hand to answer questions, share valuable information, offer giveaways, raffles and interactive games.

Additionally, there will be cooking demonstrations, delicious food samples and yard games such as cornhole and giant Jenga for attendees to enjoy while connecting with health professionals.

"The Health & Wellness Expo is a great opportunity for our community to access resources that support their health and well-being -- all in one place," said DMH CEO Lauren Faison-Clark. "We're excited to bring these services to Taylor County, so our neighbors don't have to travel far to see what the region has to offer. It will be a great day, and we can't wait to welcome everyone to DMH."

This free event is designed to support individuals at all stages of life, providing local resources to help community members navigate their health and healthcare.

"Whether you're seeking advice, new wellness strategies or just looking to connect with local professionals, the Health & Wellness Expo offers something for everyone," Faison-Clark added.

Friends group welcomes author Diane Swearingen as guest speaker Monday

On Monday, Sept. 29, the Friends of the Taylor County Public Library welcome author Diane Swearingen as guest speaker.

She is the author of "The Smallest Tadpole's War in The Land of Mysterious Waters," a book of historical fiction which chronicles life in North Florida during the antebellum and the Civil War time.

It is based on a true family story from a time when most of the white population of North Florida was relatively poor and rural.

The retired Tallahassee teacher and media specialist has also written "The Edge of the Devil's Hammock," a thriller fiction based on a family's dark secrets.

The free program will be begin at 5:30 p.m. and a door prize will be awarded.

The program will also be livestreamed on the Friends of the Taylor County Public Library's Facebook page.

Elks Soccer Shoot set Oct. 4

'Be ever ready to believe the best of every person'

anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to believe the best of every person, its hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and it endures everything [without weakening]."

God's grace is essential in the lives of all believers. We're all sinners saved by grace. "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9 ESV).

When we see ourselves as sinners saved by God's incredible grace, maybe we'll stop judging others and aim to be "ever ready to believe the best of every person." Then perhaps we can more easily endure "everything without weakening."

Instead of backbiting, we can humbly pray for our brothers and sisters and always remember, "There, but by the grace of God, go I."

Speaking for myself, if it wasn't for God's grace, I'd be a goner.
